BREED THEATER.

For the Honor of the Flag, the feature picture at the Breed today, is a most thrilling story of life on the Mexican border during the recent insurrection. Early in the picture Mary, a young girl living on the shores of the Rio Grande in Texas, crosses the river at the narrowest point, and while over the border rescues a young girl from a Mexican assailant, carrying her over to the Texas home. One day while Mary is out riding the Mexican attempts to force his attentions upon the girl again, but Mary arrives in time to put a stop to it, raising the American flag over the house to remind the Mexican he was trespassing. He attempts to tear it down, but Mary rushes to the roof of the house and tying a handkerchief to a stick wigwags to the sentry on a neighboring hill the signal of distress. The American sentry saw the signal and rushed a number of Uncle Sam's boys to the scene and soon put the desperado to flight. The villain is captured and in the presence of all forced to salute the flag he once insulted. The various scenes are especially interesting and instructive, as they are actual scenes of the U. S. army, taken during its encampment on the Texas border.

State Law in Effect on August 1 for Motor Vehicle Drivers.

Since the state police became active in this vinicity in bringing to task violators of the automobile law. The Bulletin has received a number of requests to reprint the law in full. An unusual percentage of automobile proprietors frankly confess they have no copy of the law and are ignorant of most or all of its provisions, which go into effect on Tuesday, August 1. The law in its entirely would fill several columns of space and as many of the provisions do not in any way concern the ordinary autoist, only such sections of the law as should be observed by drivers of motor vehicles if they desire to keep within the law, are reprinted.

The motor vehicle law goes into effect Tuesday morning, August 1.

Size of Number Plates.

Section four stipulates that every motor vehicle, except motor cycles, shall at all times while in use or operation upon the public highways of this state have displayed in a conspicuous place, at the front and rear, the registered number plates. The figures of the registered number thereon shall be not less than four inches high and each stroke not less than five-eighths of an inch wide. Each digit shall occupy a space not less than three and one-half inches in width. Such number plates upon such motor vehicles shall at all times be entirely unobscured, and the registered number and letters thereon shall at all times be plainly legible. As to Reasonable Speed.

Section 11, the one which most concerns auto drivers, is rather vague. In full it reads:

"No person shall operate a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state recklessly or at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the width, traffic and use of the highway, or so as to endanger the property or the life or limb of any person."

Bristol.—Announcement has been made by the Horton Manufacturing company that Willis H. Bacon, who has served as general manager—and secretary, practically since it was started, twenty-one years ago, has resigned.

New Haven.—The Pastmasters' association, A. F. and A. M., of New Haven county; expects that between two and three hundred members of the order from all parts of the county and state will be present at the seventeenth annual outing to be held at Wilcox's pier restaurant, Savin Rock, August 5.

dealth Officer Goldstein Will Bring Prosecutions Where Ansonia Dealers Fail to Comply With Ordinance.

Health Officer Goldstein is still continuing his crusade on unclean back yards, and last week issued final warnings to several property holders in the lower end of the city. It is this section of the city the health officer states which is giving him the most trouble. Scant attention has been paid the health ordinances, and refuse has been carelessly cast about, not only in back yards, but on the street as well. While some improvement has been noted in several places, the improvement as a whole is not sufficient to satisfy the health officer. Dr. Goldstein will make the rounds of the city again next week, and unless his orders have been complied with arrests, are promised.

The health officer recently ordered screens to be placed on all exposed fruit and vegetables. The screening law will occupy considerable of the health efficer's attention next week. Most of the dealers have complied with the health ordinances in the matter. There are still several stores where fruit and other edibles liable to be infected by germs are shown on stands on the sidewalk without any sort of screens, and considerable unfavorable comment has been passed regarding the matter.—Ansonia Sentinel,

S. FRAGETTES' CAMPAIGN. Group of College Girls to Make an Automobile Tour Through Litchfield County Next Month.

What promises to be an interesting reampaign is planned by the Connecticut Woman Suffrage association for the month of August. A group of attractive, resourceful college girls will make a tour by automobile through Litchfield county and a few of the nearby towns. With a car guily decorated with the suffrage colors and with banners inscribed, "Votes for Women," floating to the wind the car will sweep from town to town. Some of the young women will go ahead into each town as fore-runners to prepare the way; some will remain in each town to gather up the harvest of new recruits; but the main body will be one night in a town, bringing this message of progress for those who are ready to receive it. Town halls, granges and churches, ail have been engaged and already placards and window cards are covering the county. In many towns local suffragists will welcome the little band. Not only evening meetings, but lawn parties, veranda meetings, and picnics will give every soul in the county a chance to hear these talented and interesting young women.—Torrington Register. teresting young women, -Torrington Register.

No ice bills, no cold storage eggs,

No bunko steerers and no yeggs,

No trolley cars with clang and whirr,

No Teddy to keep things astir—

Say, is it any wonder that

The ancients thought the world was flat?
